1. JOB PURPOSE:

To work with the daytime AMHP Duty Service during normal working hours, though there is the expectation that any referral before 5pm requiring action on that day, will fall to the Duty AMHP in day services. To prioritise workload depending on risk(s), urgency and complexity. To work in a demanding role, resolving conflict situations and maintaining a high standard of professional attitude. To scrutinise referrals, planning & arranging assessments, liaise with various partner agencies and coordinate the day to day duties. Ensuring the AMHP Duty Service provided an efficient and timely response to requests, managing own stress and workload. Ensuring professional qualification and warranting requirements are maintained. Being flexible both in your approach to the role and dealing with challenging situations, ensuring that any risk(s) to the public, family, colleagues & any other parties is managed safely and proportionately. To respond to residents and customer complaints. To ensure an up to date knowledge of relevant legislation and policy requirements which AMHPs are required to adhere to. To fulfil the statutory role of an AMHP and execute the powers accordingly.

To seek support, advice and guidance from the AMHP Duty Manager when appropriate. To ensure that the AMHP Duty Manager is informed of daily events and kept abreast of any developments, complaints or service needs.

To ensure all paperwork is completed within the statutory & local policy requirements, to ensure all paperwork is fit for scrutiny and legally defensible.

2. DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES:

- To carry out Mental Health Act Assessments as an autonomous practitioner and consider the least restrictive options
- To complete, in accordance with the Mental Health Act, all assessment and recommendation paperwork and ensure this is uploaded to patient record
- To provide a strong social work and social care perspective to the work undertaken in the team and act as a social care expert to others around Mental Health Act legislation
- To ensure all AMHP warranting requirements are maintained in order to remain warranted, including evidence of required continuing professional development
- To maintain Professional registration with the relevant professional body and observe the professional code of conduct at all times.
- To engage in regular vetting with the Disclosure and barring service.
- To keep abreast of all relevant legislation and case law relevant to being an AMHP, sound working knowledge and practice with regards to The Care Act 2014 and any other relevant legislation.
- To have responsibility for a portfolio of cases for a defined area of work as determined by the line manager
- Co-operate and participate in the rota duty system at all times with other members of the service unit and to respond to Emergency situations when required when referred to the AMHP Duty Service before 5pm which may lead to working unsociable hours until the assessment is safely completed.
- To promote and ensure maximum service user/carer's involvement and participation at all times.
- To ensure personal and professional development as an AMHP and to maintain the AMHP warrant for the borough
- To attend ward rounds and advise on Social Care elements for the care and treatment of residents and liaise in relation to referrals of inpatients who need discharge planning, when required.

- Ability to communicate verbally and in writing
- Ability to work positively as a member of the team both with Social Services and with other agencies
- Ability to respond positively to supervision and training
- Ability to prioritise and manage own work process and to work under pressure
- Ability to manage stress and conflict
- Ability to produce information and reports
- Proven experience in Negotiating and Advisory skills
- To provide comprehensive, culturally appropriate, evidence based assessments to establish eligibility for health and social care services.
- To investigate complaints where appropriate and as directed.
- To undertake statutory AMHP duties and supervise other AMHPs, students and trainees, acting as practice assessor.
- To identify safeguarding issues in relation to both adults and children and to implement procedures as required. Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility and all employees are required to act in such a way that at all times safeguards the health and well being of children and vulnerable adults.
- To work with relevant partners and agencies.
- Any other duties as required.
